

Colleen Oakleaf has been involved with MusicFest Canada since 2001 leading teams, both Front of House and as Stage Manager since 2006. In 2016 she stepped away from the adjudicated stages taking on the roll of Service Director within the production team.

Colleen is entering her 15th year working for the City of Mississauga Library System. She recently began a new position working as a Supervisor in the Material Handling & Processing Department at Mississauga Central Library after over 6 years as a Supervisor in the Circulation Department.

When not at MusicFest or work, Colleen an avid paper crafter and is an active member of the arts community within the City of Brampton, playing Flute and Baritone Sax with the Chinguacousy Concert Band and the Chinguacousy Swing Orchestra.